The Popehat Signal: Suburban Express Doubles Down On Attacks On Critics

by Gulugawa in UIUC

[-] Super-Spyder 8 points 10 days ago

I am going to see to it that every apartment on campus gets a flyer That I am having printed. Donations will allow me to have 10,000 printed and the number of volunteers will easily allow the entire campus to be covered in less than a few hours. A storm is coming. I hope you brought an umbrella.

↓ Suburban Express is a bus company that goes between Champaign and the Chicago suburbs. However, many students have been harassed (both verbally and via email), banned, and sued by the owner.

Here is a good foundation as to what Suburban Express has done from another thread:

http://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/1iuxtu/suburban_express_court_date_to_vacate_dismissals/

This link also has all 37 articles about what Suburban Express has done:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Talk:Suburban_Express#Links_related_to_ControversyYou can also read the banner at the top of the /r/uiuc that says "Don't ride Suburban Express! They've sued hundreds of their customers, threatened the mods with legal action, have terrible reviews, and more." Just scroll up. ↓ When I was in 6th grade, I bought a pager without any service. To seem "cool", I would set the timer to go off 5 minutes later before walking into a store. I would then act like I was getting paged when the thing went off. People would be confused to see an 11 year old getting buzzed.

The sad part is, now it is common for 10-11 year olds to have cell phones. Having a pager back then was shocking.

Another great thing to put on a flyer would be that a female had an emergency order of protection granted by a judge against the President of Suburban Express because she feared for her safety. In light of Dennis Toeppen's recent actions, I concur that her fear was rightfully justified.

[-] Super-Spyder 6 points 24 days ago*

I think you can make an RSO that takes a stand against "Bus Companies in Champaign that Sue Students" (or something of that sort). There is nothing discriminatory about it since it will be based solely on facts (ie bus companies in Champaign that have filed lawsuits against students). Then, you can mention companies like Suburban Express who have attempted to sue 125 students.

Some great activities could be to hand out flyers on Quad Day warning about Suburban Express with quotes from and QR codes to the articles here:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Talk:Suburban_Express#Links_related_to_Controversy

In fact, I hope someone will do it.

I 100% support it and will happily sign up for this club.

↓ hmmm....While they say they don't, I'm 80% sure they do. Someone threw a cup off of my balcony and the police showed up saying the building showed them video as proof that my apartment was the one responsible.

However, there is new management now. This was during the time of Roland Realty.

309 has its own security, Securitas. If they did not prevent this, and you can prove the bottle came from 309, I could see a potential lawsuit.

↓ Suburban Express attempted to sue 125 students a few months back...but dismissed them after the company got bad press. Now, Dennis Toeppen is trying to reinstate 20 of them hoping no one will notice. Additionally, Dennis has attempted to get some school records about the Reddit Moderator from the University using the Freedom of Information Act.

recognition to /u/AlmostGrad100 for the following:

There has been some ongoing drama about a bus company called Suburban Express which sues people (was 125 lawsuits) for violating their tyrannical terms of service and hounds people who write negative reviews about them online on Yelp, Reddit, etc. and bullies them into taking down those reviews. This made it to Reddit front page twice about 2 months back (though /r/news and /r/bestof). This comment provides some background. This controversy has made it to about 2 dozen news publications.

The 2 dozen resources include: The Chicago Tribune, Daily Illini, WILL News, News-Gazette, and ArsTechnica...although there are many more.

This is why you have no friends, no wife, and thank goodness, no children....you are now and always will be just a lonely old man (yes. you are now old) who hangs out with (or should I say stalks) college students on Reddit since a major part of your life is missing.

In my opinion, you are the biggest failure of us all. You run a bus company. Congrats on your life accomplishment.

EDIT: Dennis removed the comment above saying that he looked up Joel Steinfeldt's salary in the public database, and since since he only makes $55k at his age, he is a total "failure".

Mr. Toeppen continues to abuse the legal system. First by turning small claims court into a profit center and now by wasting tax payer money with frivolous FOIA inquires that take faculty time.

Shame on you Mr. Toeppen. Shame on you!
